About DAY-NULM:

National Urban Livelihoods Mission (NULM) was launched by the Ministry of Housing and Urban Poverty Alleviation (MHUPA), Government of India in 23rd September, 2013 by replacing the existing Swarna Jayanti Shahari Rozgar Yojana (SJSRY). The NULM will focus on organizing urban poor in their strong grassroots level institutions, creating opportunities for skill development leading to market-based employment and helping them to set up self-employment venture by ensuring easy access to credit. The Mission is aimed at providing shelter equipped with essential services to the urban homeless in a phased manner. In addition, the Mission would also address livelihood concerns of the urban street vendors.

The Main Features of NULM are Coverage: In the 12th Five Year Plan, NULM will be implemented in all districts headquarter towns (irrespective of population) and all other towns with population of 1 lakh or more as per Census 2011. At present 790 cities are under NULM. However, other towns may be allowed in exceptional cases on request of the States. Target Population: The primary target of NULM is the urban poor, including the urban homeless. Sharing of funding: Funding will be shared between the Centre and the States in the ratio of 75:25. For North Eastern and Special Category States (Arunachal Pradesh, Assam, Manipur, Meghalaya, Mizoram, Nagaland, Sikkim, Tripura, Jammu & Kashmir, Himachal Pradesh and Uttarakhand), this ratio will be 90:10.

Guiding Principles: The core belief of National Urban Livelihoods Mission (NULM) is that the poor are entrepreneurial and have innate desire to come out of poverty. The challenge is to unleash their capabilities to generate meaningful and sustainable livelihoods. The first step in this process is motivating the urban poor to form their own institutions. They and their institutions need to be provided sufficient capacity so that they can manage the external environment, access finance, expand their skills, enterprises and assets. This requires continuous and carefully designed hand holding support. An external, dedicated and sensitive support structure, from the national level to the city and community levels, is required to induce social mobilisation, institution building and livelihood promotion. NULM believes that any livelihood promotion programme can be scaled up in a time bound manner only if driven by the poor and their institutions. Such strong institutional platforms support the poor in building up their own human, social, financial, and other assets. This in turn, enables them access to rights, entitlements, opportunities and services from the public and private sectors, while enhancing their solidarity, voice and bargaining power. As per the Constitution (74th Amendment) Act, 1992, urban poverty alleviation is a legitimate function of the Urban Local Bodies (ULB). Therefore, ULBs would need to undertake a lead role for all issues and programmes concerning the urban poor in cities/towns, including skills and livelihoods. NULM would aim at universal coverage of the urban poor for skill development and credit facilities. It will strive for skills training of the urban poor for market-based jobs and self-employment, facilitating easy access to credit. Street vendors constitute an important segment of the urban population at the bottom of the pyramid. Street vending provides a source of self-employment, and thus acts as a measure of urban poverty alleviation without major Government intervention. They have a prominent place in the urban supply chain and are an integral part of the economic growth process within urban areas. NULM would aim at facilitating access to suitable spaces, institutional credit, social security and skills to the urban street vendors for accessing emerging market opportunities. Urban homeless persons who live without shelter or social security/ protection are the most vulnerable class, even while they contribute towards sustaining cities with their cheap labour. Life on the streets involves surviving continuously at the edge, in a physically brutalized and challenging environment. There is a need for appropriate policy intervention to address the challenges faced by homeless people, with regard to shelter, social housing and social protection. Accordingly, NULM would aim at providing shelter equipped with essential services to the urban homeless in a phased manner. NULM would place a very high emphasis on convergence with schemes/programmes of the relevant line Ministries/Departments and programmes of state governments dealing with skills, livelihoods, entrepreneurship development, health, education, social assistance, etc. An alliance strategy will be sought with all concerned departments to promote skills training of rural-urban migrants as a bridge between the livelihoods of the rural and urban poor. NULM would aim at partnership with the private sector in providing skill training, employment and operation of shelter for homeless. It will strive for active participation of private and civil society sectors in providing shelter to the urban homeless, skill training and placement of the urban poor and also in facilitating technological, marketing and hand holding support for the urban poor entrepreneurs who want to be self-employed and set up their own small businesses or manufacturing units.

Values: The mission will espouse the following values:

- Ownership and productive involvement of the urban poor and their institutions in all processes;
- Transparency in programme design and implementation, including institution building and capacity strengthening;
- Accountability of government functionaries and the community;
- Partnerships with industry and other stakeholders; and
- Community self-reliance, self-dependence, self-help and mutual-help.

Mission - To reduce poverty and vulnerability of the urban poor households by enabling them to access gainful self-employment and skilled wage employment opportunities, resulting in an appreciable improvement in their livelihoods on a sustainable basis, through building strong grassroots level institutions of the poor. The mission would aim at providing shelter equipped with essential services to the urban homeless in a phased manner. In addition, the Mission would also address livelihood concerns of the urban street vendors by facilitating access to suitable spaces, institutional credit, social security and skills to the urban street vendors for accessing emerging market opportunities.

Operational Guidelines & Key Component of DAY-NULM:

- (1)Social Mobilization and Institution Development (SM&ID) : NULM envisages universal social mobilization of urban poor into Self-Help Groups (SHGs) and organizing them into federations. At least one member from each urban poor household, preferably a woman, should be brought under the Self-Help Group network in a time-bound manner. These groups will serve as a support system for the poor, to meet their financial and social needs. City Livelihood Centres (CLCs) will be established in Mission cities to provide a platform whereby the urban poor can market their services and access information on self-employment, skill training and other benefits.
- (2)Capacity Building and Training (CB&T): A key objective of NULM is to transform the role of the Ministry of Housing and Urban Poverty Alleviation and State Agencies in charge of urban poverty alleviation into providers of high quality technical assistance in the fields of urban livelihoods promotion and urban poverty alleviation. NULM will establish a dedicated implementation structure with high quality technical assistance to implement NULM at different level. Focused attention will be taken care of to strengthen implementation of the Mission, monitoring, evaluation, social audit and capacity building etc. in the States and UTs to achieve the goals.
- (3)Employment through Skills Training and Placement (EST&P): EST&P component under NULM is designed to provide skills to the unskilled urban poor as well as to upgrade their existing skills. The program will provide skill training to the urban poor so that they can set up self-employment ventures or secure salaried employment. The program intends to fill the gap between the demand and availability of local skills by providing skill training programs as required by the market.
- (4)Self-Employment Programme (SEP): SEP component will focus on financial assistance to individuals/groups of urban poor for setting up gainful self-employment ventures/ micro-enterprises suited to their skills, training, aptitude and local conditions. This assistance will be in the form of interest-subsidy on bank loans for setting up of projects by individual micro enterprises and for group enterprises.

(5)Support to Urban Street Vendors (SUSV): This component aims at skilling of street vendors, support micro-enterprise development, credit enablement and pro-vending urban planning along with supporting social security options for vulnerable groups such as women, SCs/STs and minorities. Up to 5% of the total NULM budget will be spent on this component which will cover pro-vending urban planning, development of vendors market, credit enablement of vendors, socio-economic survey of street vendors, skill development and micro enterprises development, and convergence with social assistance under various schemes of the Government.

(6)Scheme of Shelter for Urban Homeless (SUH): SUH aims to provide permanent shelter with all other essential services to the urban homeless. The shelter will be a permanent all-weather 24 X 7 shelter for the urban homeless. For every one lakh urban population, provisions should be made for permanent community shelters for a minimum of one hundred persons. Depending upon local conditions each shelter could cater to between 50 or more persons.

(8)Innovative and Special Projects (ISP): This component will focus on the promotion of novel initiatives in the form of innovative projects. These initiatives may be in the nature of pioneering efforts, aimed at catalyzing sustainable approaches to urban livelihoods through Public, Private, Community Partnership (P-P-C-P), demonstrating a promising methodology or making a distinct impact on the urban poverty situation through scalable initiatives. Under the Scheme of Shelter for Urban Homeless (SHU) is mandatory for conducting survey for urban homeless population as per directives of Supreme Court of India. In this regards Amendments in Operational Guidelines of Shelter for Urban Homeless (SHU) perceive as Annexure – 1

Shelters for the Urban Homeless:

Urban homeless people live desperately hard lives with no shelter or social protection. They are described variously as homeless, houseless, roofless, shelter less and pavement dwellers.(Ref.SUH a hand book for administrators and policy makers) The Census of India defines houseless population as persons who are not living in census house. A census house is a structure with roof. Possible places of homeless in city where houseless populations are likely to live such as on the road side, pavements, in Hume pipes, under staircases or in open, temples, mandaps, platforms, key city junction, below of bridge etc. Problem of reliable estimation and clear definition of houseless population are encountered in the surveys conducted for cities.

Homelessness in Indian Cities:

Urban homeless people are invisible in the public policy, even though policy makers can see every them every single day as the policy makers drive on city streets. The homeless live in our cities virtually as non-citizen. Many die un-mournd in the bitter winter cold, the merciless summer heat, or in the monsoon deluge. Life for them is an unremitting struggle against hunger, loneliness and sickness.

Definition of Urban Homeless People:

For the purpose of the interventions of the government, the following are understood to be homeless

Persons who do not have a house, self – owned or rented but instead

- Live and sleep at pavements, parks, railway stations, bus stations, places of worship, outside shops and factories, at construction sites, under bridges, in huge pipes and other places under the open sky or places unfit for human habitation.
- Spend their nights and/or day at shelters, transit homes, short homes, beggar's homes and children homes.
- Live in temporary structures with or without walls under plastic sheets or thatch roofs on pavements, parks, nallah beds and others common spaces. Within this group, there are multiple degrees of vulnerability. For instance, there are single women, the infirm and old, the disabled and person who have special needs such as floating migrant population unable to find labour or food, those involved in substance abuse and patients suffering from debilitating diseases.

Directions of Supreme Court about the Homeless People:

The Commissioners of the Supreme Court in the Writ Petition 196/2001 brought the distressing conditions of people living on the streets of Delhi to the notice of the Supreme Court in their letter dated 13 January 2010. These distressing conditions included denial of the right to food and shelter especially in the context of extreme cold weather, which in turn constituted a threat to their fundamental right to life. The Supreme Court took urgent notice of this matter and directed the Government of Delhi to immediately provide shelter to all those without shelter. Further, it directed that these shelters must provide basic amenities such as blankets, water, and mobile toilets. Government agencies joined hands to more than double the number of shelters in just two days. This intervention of the Supreme Court led to the saving of several precious lives of the most vulnerable citizens of the capital city. In their second letter to the Supreme Court dated 25 January 2010, the commissioners informed the Supreme Court of a similar situation of severe denial of the right to food and shelter for people living on the streets in all cities throughout the country. This constituted a grave and persisting threat to their fundamental right to a life with dignity.

On 12 March 2010, they submitted detailed guidelines for states to establish shelters and other basic rights of the homeless. Since then, the Supreme Court has been regularly reviewing the implementation of its directions for the Urban Homeless by all state Governments. The Delhi High Court has also been closely monitoring the situation of the homeless in Delhi. In its most recent hearing, on January 27, 2012, the Supreme Court reiterated that the right to dignified shelters was a necessary component of the Right to life under Article 21 of the Constitution of India. The Supreme Court's interventions have been seminal in bringing the need to develop rights based policy and programme interventions for homeless persons to the notice of the public and policy agenda for the first time.

However, although the Supreme Court outlined a set of programmes for shelters and related services, and directed the state governments to implement these, experience of monitoring the actual progress on the ground has not been very encouraging. It highlights low will and capacity to implement the Supreme Court's directions. The experience also underlines the urgent need to develop a national framework and programme to address the issues of the urban homeless population, now reflected in the scheme of Shelters for Urban Homeless (SUH) (Ref. Shelters for the Urban Homeless, A Handbook for Administrator and Policymakers)

Permanent Shelters for Urban Homeless People:

An urban homeless shelter may be understood as safe, decent and secure covered space which offers to urban homeless person who wish to access it protection from the elements space to rest and store their belongings, access to drinking, bathing water, sanitation, allied facilities, security and safety.

Back ground of the Homeless Survey Assignment:

Under the guidelines of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, all state and Urban Local Body (ULB) are now legally bound to build dignified permanent shelters for the urban homeless in sufficient numbers and with appropriate facilities, to ensure fulfilment of their rights to life and shelter. Following up on the Hon'ble Supreme courts directives, the Commissioner of Supreme Court inducted into HUPAs efforts to develop a National Program for urban homeless. A scheme of Shelters for Urban Homeless (SUH) was been launched in September 2013, and operational guidelines issued for it under the NULM in December, 2013. Whereas winter is a period of the severest crisis for homeless people in that it is directly life threatening, all seasons also pose a threat to homeless people. Homeless people are also subjected to continuous violence and abuse. Living in the open, with no privacy and protection, is gross denial of the fundamental right to a life with dignity. It is to defend and uphold their right to a life with dignity, and their rights to food and shelter that sufficient numbers of permanent shelters are required in all Cities, in all seasons. Even while sustaining cities with their cheap labour, urban homeless person live desperately hard lives with no shelter or social protection. They are described variously as homeless, houseless, roofless, shelter less and pavement dwellers. The Census of India defines houseless population as persons who are not living in census house. A census house is a structure with roof. Census enumerators are instructed to take note of the possible places where houseless populations are likely to live such as on the roadside side, pavements, in hume pipes, under staircases or in the open, temples, mandaps, clear definition of homeless population are encountered in the survey conducted for the city. The Census in 2001 enumerated 1.94 million homeless people in India, of whom 1.16 million lived in villages and only 0.77 million lived in cities and towns. However, these numbers are likely to be gross underestimations, as homeless people tend to be an invisible group especially to officials. The Urbanisation is taking place at a faster rate in India. Population residing in urban areas in India, according to 1901 census, was 11.4%. This count increased to 28.53% according to 2001 census, and crossing 30% as per 2011 census, standing at 31.16% Nagar Nigam Dehradun, having a current population of 764833 lakh and floating population is near about 9 to 12 lakh. Dehradun city is capital and economic growth centre of the state. The after extension of city the total geographical area of Nagar Nigam Dehradun is 131.97 Sq.Km. There is having 100 wards in four zones. Consequently keeping the view of the city, there is increase the number of homeless people. Actual numbers of the homeless people are getting after the compilation survey work.

About City: Dehradun is situated in the north Indian state of Uttarakhand around 235 km from Delhi. Dehradun, is one of the oldest cities and is presently provisional capital of Uttarakhand State. It is also known as Doon valley and is situated at the foothills of Shivalik ranges in India. It is a major tourist attraction and destination of the state. A must to visit city with its exotic beauty has many temples reflecting the spirituality of the place. The city offers a unique experience to everyone it could be aged person, a trekker or a person who loves to shop or for children. The city even hosts wonderful resorts that offer five-star facilities to their customer. Its temperate climate attracts tourists throughout the year. There are a great number of tourist attractions in and around Dehradun, which is an important tourist destination owing to its location, terrain, green cover and its connectivity. A number of historic temples reflect the spiritual importance of the place. After becoming interim capital of the state, while tracing its growth pattern, it may be viewed that Dehradun is one of the fastest growing cities in the country. In 1981 and 1991 decades, the decadal growth in population of Dehradun was 21.33% and 21.85% respectively. The sudden jump to 39.73% in the next decade is explained by the fact that in this decade Uttarakhand was made a separate State with Dehradun as its interim capital. In the decade 1991-01, Dehradun achieved decadal population growth rate of 39.73%, which was considerably higher than the national average of 21.53%. The increase in population has led to increase the homeless people in the city.

However, the most vulnerable of these are the urban homeless. National Urban Livelihoods Mission (NULM) aims at providing permanent shelter equipped with essential services to the urban homeless in a phased manner under the Scheme of Shelter for Urban Homeless (SUH). Homeless persons include persons who do not have a house, either self-owned or rented, but instead live and sleep on pavements, at parks, railway stations, bus stations and places of worship, outside shops and factories, at construction sites, under bridges, in hume pipes and other places under the open sky or places unfit for human habitation. It is understood that many occupants of shelters are engaged in work during the nights (e.g. as head-loaders), and thus need shelters to sleep in, during the day. Casual workers also often do not get employment on a daily basis, and so they may need shelters during the day and not just at

In addition, quality audit of operational shelters will be conducted at the shelter level on a quarterly basis. The audits are expected to be conducted by third party external reviewers such as universities, independent institutes, civil society organisations appointed for the purpose. These audits should be conducted unannounced by using methods of observation and interview. Separate interviews should be held with staff and inmates of the shelters.

Apart from that, social audit of each shelter should be organised at least once a year.

13. Clause 13.5: The State/ULB shall prescribe norms and guidelines on the Grievance redressal mechanism.

Clause 13.5: The State/ULB shall prescribe norms and guidelines on the Grievance redressal mechanism. Some indicative guidelines in this regard are as follows:

- (i) All shelters need to maintain a complaint register at the shelter itself where residents can record complaints. There will also be a locked box for those who choose to use it for complaints.
- (ii) The Shelter Manager will be responsible for ensuring that complaints are redressed within a maximum of 15 days of being recorded. However, for complaints which require immediate redressal, such as clogged toilets, inadequate bedding and no drinking water, these should be addressed within 24 hours.
- (iii) Registers must be examined at periodic intervals by the Shelter Management Committee, which will ensure the timely redressal of complaints. If the grievance at this level is not redressed then the EC at the city level which is responsible for the review and supervision of the working of shelters, may be approached.
- (iv) The complaints received through other means like telephone calls, e-mails, text messages should also be entered in the complaint register and should be redressed within 15 days.
- (v) Efforts should be made to develop a suitable portal for online registration of complaints in addition to manual

14.	New Clause inserted	Clause 14: IDENTIFICATION AND RESCUE <ol style="list-style-type: none">i. Mandate of the scheme is not just to build a shelter but also to ensure that no one is deprived of a safe and secure roof over his/ her head. Hence, it must be ensured by the ULBs and the agencies running the shelters that there are no homeless persons in the area sleeping in the open. Agency running the shelter shall have the responsibility of identifying the homeless persons and also persuading them to come to the shelter.ii. CBOs, NGOs, and any other organisation working for the cause of the urban homeless should be sensitised, trained and motivated to bring the homeless to the shelter.iii. Infirm, sick, victims of crime, destitute, minor children and other vulnerable groups should be handled with extreme sensitivity. They should be rescued from the streets and brought into the shelteriv. The agency should take the rescued sick person to the nearby hospital for medical treatment, if required.v. During the process of rescue, local police should be informed. Simultaneously, social welfare department; women and child welfare department; or any other concerned department should be contacted to facilitate their stay and recovery in their specific homes which are equipped to deal with their specific needs.

Clause 15: ADMISSION AND REPATRIATION

- i. The socio demographic particulars of the individuals should be collected by the shelter coordinator in the prescribed form (Annexure-2) at the time of admission to the shelter.
- ii. Counselling support to the inmates should be provided by the Shelter coordinator/Manager.
- iii. Local police should be actively involved in tracing the family of the homeless whenever required.
- iv. If the homeless individual is deserted from the family, then enquiry/counselling session with the family should be arranged to explore the possibilities of immediate reintegration; after careful verification of documents available with the family. This should be done with active involvement of concerned welfare departments/ police/ NGOs/ CBOs.

16. Clause 14: PUBLICITY OF INFORMATION

In order to ensure that the information about availability of shelters for urban homeless reaches the ultimate beneficiaries, i.e. the targeted population, adequate publicity measures should be taken by the State/ULB on regular basis.

Clause 16: PUBLICITY OF INFORMATION

In order to ensure that the information about availability of shelters for urban homeless reaches the ultimate beneficiaries, i.e. the targeted population, adequate publicity measures should be taken by the State/ULB on regular basis. Posters, banners, hoardings should be placed at all vantage points like railway station, bus stands, hospitals, parks, important market areas, etc. for wide publication of the location and facilities available in the shelter. Leaflets and the local newsletter should carry news about the shelters for wider dissemination.

Handing over of the homeless should also be done with the involvement of CBOs, NGOs, NSS etc. on regular basis so that the homeless people could be sensitised and encouraged to use the shelters.

Annexure – Guideline for Conducting to Survey of Urban Homeless Population

Survey of Urban Homeless Population

Annexure-1

Primary Objectives:

Survey would ensure four objectives. It would

- i. provide planners a detailed mapping of concentration areas of homeless populations in each city/town;
- ii. establish the demographic profile of homeless populations in each city/town;
- iii. identify official resources such as land and vacant buildings that can be deployed to provide the required infrastructure for shelters in appropriate locations in each city/town; and
- iv. establish the location and type of shelters needed in each city/town by gauging the specific needs of the beneficiaries.

Survey maybe divided into three phases:

a. Planning Phase

The city may be divided into smaller, more compact zones/regions, in line within the administrative set-up of the city and teams may be deployed depending on size and population of the zones. Each team may comprise of around four persons for the field survey. These persons should be a combination of state and local government officials, NGO representatives, homeless youth volunteers, and student and youth volunteers (such as from the National Service Scheme-NSS and Nehru Yuva Kendra-NYK). In addition, a team of two data entry and analysis specialists should be attached to each team, totalling up to six people per team. Additional student volunteers can be added to each team to assist and learn from the process.

A Plan for survey of homeless population will be prepared by the concerned ULB, which will include the following details:

1. Identification of areas with concentration of homeless based on earlier surveys or any other source of information
2. Division of city into zones/ regions in which data would be collected
3. Methodology for conducting the survey.
4. Questionnaire for collecting the demographic profile
5. List of interview questions for guiding the focus group discussions
6. Content and format of report to be submitted
7. Timeline within which survey would be completed.
8. List of partners who would be assisting in the qualitative as well as quantitative collection of data

Prior to the survey, the teams should be trained and oriented on:

1. purpose of the survey;
2. the profiles and problems of the homeless;
3. expected outcomes;
4. participatory research methods;
5. ethical responsibilities.

Orientation material can be provided a couple of days prior to starting the survey, as material to be read before the training sessions. The training should include the data entry and analysis team, plus volunteers, if any.

b. Field Survey: Mapping and Need assessment

The field survey will commence only after the trained survey teams are in place. The field survey should begin from 8 pm onwards, because homeless people can usually be identified and contacted at this time. In addition, to cover homeless persons who work during the night, surveys should also be planned for a couple of days during the daytime, i.e. 10 am to 4 pm. The steps to be followed during the survey,

1. Identifying the areas with concentration of homeless population.
2. Profiling the homeless populations in these areas in terms of gender, age, education, occupation, marital status, number of children, history of illness etc. Persons with disability should be categorised separately.
3. Identifying the aspirations of the homeless for a shelter and also the deterrents preventing the homeless from using the existing shelters, if any.
4. Broadly identifying the possible buildings and locations that might be used as it is or upgraded to be used as shelters; and locations where new shelters can be built.

Need assessment of the homeless persons should be done using focus group discussion (FGD) method so as to elicit the best possible responses from them.

In FGD, questions should be asked based on an indicative list/format focussing on the following core areas:

- i. What is roughly the total population of the homeless cluster including women and children?
- ii. What is the predominant age and gender profile of the homeless population in that cluster?
- iii. What are the predominant occupations undertaken by this homeless cluster?
- iv. Do they have any special needs and challenges, such as disability, leprosy, TB, high drug use etc?
- v. Have the majority of homeless residents been at this location for more than one year, or less?

- vi. Do they have access to any shelter? If so, the experience of using such shelters by the homeless
- vii. If the government sets up a shelter for them, would they welcome it; oppose it; or be indifferent? Ask for reasons.
- viii. If they were to have a shelter, what would they seek from it in terms of location; facilities; and management?
- ix. Are there any resources available in the vicinity where these shelters could be built? The resources could be in the form of land or building.

This information should be recorded and collated by each team. To ensure faster survey results, data entry should preferably be done in parallel with the survey.

The following deliverables are expected out of this process at this stage:

1. Map should indicate the locations of all the scattered as well as clusters of homeless people.
2. Collated survey results
3. Determination of shelter locations, types, number of shelters required in an area, plus available resources in terms of land and building.
4. Finalised resource mapping questionnaire for the next stage of resource mapping.

c. Resource Mapping

The next step is to conduct a resource mapping exercise. The resources that this phase of the survey seeks to identify are a) existing shelters; b) unutilised or underutilised government buildings that can be possibly redeployed as shelters after suitable refurbishing; and c) vacant lands that are suitable potential sites for new shelter buildings.

At the end of this process, the following deliverables are expected:

1. Field resource mapping survey of all the identified potential buildings and shelter locations
2. Determination of the feasibility of the identified buildings and locations for building/upgrading shelters, along with government agencies
3. Collating results and submitting to concerned urban bodies at the city level
4. Discussions on recommendations to be put forth in the report

d. Reporting and Sharing

Once the results of locations are established, the next step is development and finalisation of a comprehensive city plan for homeless shelters. This should include sites for homeless shelters and services, types of shelters, converging on homeless concentration areas and aspirations with available resources, buildings and land. This should be done in a participatory manner, with the involvement of municipal authorities, homeless communities and collectives, schools of social work and architecture, CBOs, NSS and college students etc.

At the end of this stage, the following deliverables are expected:

1. Analysis and inferences including homeless concentration areas, profiles, needs and aspirations of homeless populations in each concentration area
2. Preparation of Report with the following minimum arenas:
 - a. Location of shelters
 - b. Types of shelters (working single men; single women and their dependents; special needs shelters such as for drug users, those recovering from grave illnesses, the aged, disabled and infirm)
 - c. Capacity of each shelter
 - d. Facilities and Services to be provided at the shelters
 - e. Resource mapping of needs against existing resources
 - f. Submission of the data set for the project
